

QUESTIONS FOR COLOSSIANS TWO:

1. For whom does Paul express concern in the first two verses? (vs. 1-2)
2. What is the mystery of God, and what is hidden there? (vs. 3-4)
3. In whom are we to walk, and be rooted and builded up? (vs. 6-7)
4. With what are the philosophies of men contrasted? (vs. 8)
5. What dwelt in Jesus while he was here on the earth? (vs. 9)
6. In whom are we made full, and what does this mean? (vs. 10; Eph. 1:3, 23)
7. With what Old Testament rite is our conversion compared? (vs. 11)
8. What does it involve, and when does it occur? (vs. 11-12)
9. What had been the cause of spiritual death in these before they became Christians? (vs. 13)
10. What two things did God do to make them alive? (vs. 13-14)
11. What is the "bond written in ordinances" and why was it "against us?" (vs. 14)
12. Who was defeated when we were made alive in Christ? (vs. 15)
13. What is to be our attitude toward the ordinances of the law? (vs. 16)
14. What is their relation to the things of Christ? (vs. 17)
15. What if we worship, or give reverence, to angels? (vs. 18)
16. With whom do we die from the rudiments of the world and when? (vs. 20; Rom. 6:3)
17. Denying ourselves things that are not condemned by law or principle accomplishes what?

Memory Work:

Col. 26, 8-10, 11-12, 13-15, 16-17