"Pass thru the fire" 2 Chron. 28:1-3; 33:6; Jer. 7:31

Josiah defiles (2 Kings 23:10-14) So the godly Josiah defiled the valley, making it a receptacle of carcass and criminals' corpses, in which worms were continually generating. A perpetual fire was kept to consume this putrefying matter; hence it became the image of that awful place where all that are unfit for the holy city are cast out a prey to the ever gnawing "worm" of conscience from within and the "unquenchable fire" of torments from without. Mark 9:42-50, "their worm dieth not." implies that not only the worm but they also on whom it preys die not; (Fausset's Bible Dictionary)
