

What Seest Thou, Jeremiah?

599 BC – During Jehoiachin's reign. Also known as Jeconiah and Coniah.

QUESTIONS FOR CHAPTER 23:

1. On who is a woe pronounced, and for what? (vs. 1-2)
2. What will God do for the remnant of his flock? (vs. 3-4)
3. Who will God raise up, and what will be the result in Judah? (vs. 5-6)
4. What will the people no longer say – what will they say? (vs. 7-8).
5. What was Jeremiah's mental state, and who brought this on? (vs. 9)
6. What did Jeremiah see that caused him to be thus? (vs. 10-12) What will God do about it?
7. What did God see in the prophets of Samaria, and who was like them? (vs. 13-14)
8. How did God regard them, and what would he do about it? (vs. 14-15)
9. What was the message of the false prophet? (vs. 16-17) What were the people to do?
10. What will be the result of God bringing about his judgments? (vs. 19-20)
11. If God had sent these prophets, what would they cause the people to do? (vs. 21-22)
12. Can any hide himself... so that God will not see him? What does God fill? (vs. 23-24)
13. What did the dreamer prophets attempt to do? (vs. 25-27)
14. The prophet that does actually dream, what is he to do? (vs. 28)
15. What is God's word compared to? (vs. 29)
16. Who is he against, and what do these cause? (vs. 30-32) What is the false prophet worth?
17. What is God's response to those who would ask what is his burden? (vs. 33)
18. Why is a man's own word his burden? (vs. 36)
19. What if a prophet claims his message is the burden of Jehovah when it is not? (vs. 38-39)
20. What will never be forgotten? (vs. 40)