

What Seest Thou, Jeremiah?

607 BC – The fourth year of Jehoiakim's.

QUESTIONS FOR CHAPTER 25:

1. What year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign and Jehoiakim's reign for this chapter? (vs. 1-2)
2. How long had Jeremiah been warning them?(vs. 3) What phrase describes his promptness?
3. What was God's promise to them? (vs. 5-6)
4. What would God do because they had not heard him? (vs. 8-10)
5. How long would the nations, including Judah serve the king of Babylon? (vs. 11)
6. What would he then do to Babylon at the end of 70 years? (vs. 12-14)
7. What would cause the nations to reel to and fro, and be mad? (vs. 15-16)
8. Upon what nations were these judgments pronounced? (vs. 17-26)
9. Their confusion and desolation is the result of what? How is it illustrated? (vs. 27-28)
10. The judgment of God against Jerusalem is considered what by him? (vs. 29-30)
11. How is God said to utter his judgments? (vs. 30)
12. How far do his judgments reach (vs. 31)
13. What will go forth from nation to nation? (vs. 32)
14. How far will the slain stretch? (vs. 33)
15. Why should the shepherds wail and cry? (vs. 34)
16. Who will find no way to flee or escape? (vs. 35)
17. Whose fierce anger does all this? (vs. 38)

Jer. 25:11-12 seventy years → 2 Chron. 36:20-23; Ezra 1:1-2; Isa. 44:24 – 45:7

Jer. 25:12-13 punish the king of Babylon → Hab. 1, 2; Isa. 13, 14:3-20